Professional Summary

Professional leader with 14 years in IT. I lead and develop people who build software solutions: set direction, keep information flowing, and build a team climate where engineers speak up, own their craft and grow. I coach and mentor day to day, run performance and development plans, clear obstacles, and sit between the team, stakeholders and the Leadership Team. At KBC I led multi-country delivery people across EMEA, including hiring, feedback and skills growth for engineers and delivery roles. As Director of Agile Delivery & Transformation at iosttring I own people leadership, knowledge development and ways of working for sustainable delivery. My first paid work was student Analyst work in logistics BPO at Archway Consulting (2009 to 2010). Curious about emerging technology and how teams stay future-fit.
